

THE GRAND OLD MAN

Gladstone Speaks in Edinburgh, Scotland

LISTENED TO BY THOUSANDS.

He Makes His First Speech in the Scotch Campaign—He Says That the Irish Problem is the Most Important Question Now Before the Public—Other Foreign News.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 22.—Mr. Gladstone delivered the first speech of his Scotch campaign yesterday in the Corn Exchange, this city. There was a tremendous crush of people eager to see and hear the great Liberal leader, and when the hall had been crowded to suffocation thousands of disappointed persons were left outside, to return home or listen to speakers of lesser note who addressed overflow meetings in the open air. The audience in the hall numbered about 3,000. Mr. Gladstone was enthusiastically greeted on making his appearance. He was in excellent health, and his voice was clear and strong. He spoke without visible sign of fatigue.

In opening his address he remarked that though many questions of importance were before the public, the problem which continued to eclipse all others and to demand the almost undivided attention of those who strove to promote the well being of the nation, was the Irish problem. The country had come to recognize the fact that this question must be settled before other questions could be dealt with. It was one which affected the health and vitality of the state so intimately that, in truth, no other question could be properly considered while this remained in menace.

The opponents of Home Rule had hoodwinked and deluded their constituency before the election, by pledging themselves not to rely upon brute force in the government of Ireland. They had promised to provide an effective system of local self-government for that part of the kingdom. They had put themselves on record as opposed to any advances from the British treasury for the purpose of buying estate from landlords in Ireland. How had these pledges, upon which the people had granted them the reins of government, been adhered to in the actual history of their administration? The very first important measure proposed by the present government on its accession to power, was a measure for the government of the Irish people by coercion. This had been the favorite hantling of the Tory fathers. True, a local government bill had been brought in, but it was a feeble offspring, poorly nourished, and so badly neglected that it was rapidly dwindling into nothingness.

As to the third pledge, it had apparently been wholly forgotten, for, in the proposal pending before parliament in regard to expropriation of Irish estates, there was a provision by which forty million pounds of money drawn from the British people by taxation was to pass into the pockets of holders of land in Ireland. Mr. Gladstone proceeded to discuss the provisions of the land purchase bill, and subjected the measure to a severe criticism, in which his well known skill in financial analysis was exhibited so strikingly as to elicit round after round of applause from his closely attentive audience.

Mr. Gladstone challenged the government to grant a general election, and asserted with confidence that should an appeal to the country be allowed, the result would prove that the people had been won over by Conservative misgovernment to the approval of the experiment of Home Rule. With this great question settled on terms honorable alike to England and Ireland, the last fortresses of bigotry and oppression would succumb to the attack of Liberal principles. Justice to Ireland would rid the empire of an intolerable nuisance and deep disgrace, and would gild with a brighter glow than any former period the closing years of Victoria's glorious reign.

Mr. Gladstone's address was frequently interrupted by applause, and its close was followed by long-continued cheering. After a brief rest Mr. Gladstone, with his wife and a few intimate friends, attended the concert of Mme. Patti. A dense crowd gathered outside the building and wildly cheered the ex-premier as he entered. His appearance in the hall was the signal for another outburst of enthusiasm. After the concert he had a long interview with Mme. Patti, and at its conclusion the famous songstress presented the great statesman with a box of voice-losenges, which he accepted with evident pleasure.

Portugal and England.
LONDON, Oct. 22.—Senhor Sousa, the new prime minister of Portugal, has requested Lord Salisbury to suspend further operations at the Zambesi and other disputed points of East Africa until the new ministry has had an opportunity to lay the whole subject before the cabinet. He also expresses friendly feelings toward England.

Alarmed at Military Demonstrations.
LONDON, Oct. 22.—A dispatch from Zanzibar says that the Sultan of Vitu, alarmed by the joint British and German military demonstrations, has offered to send to Zanzibar the heads of all those who were concerned in the murder of German traders, and that he has the murderers now in cages awaiting their fate.

UGHT TO BE LYNCHED.

A California Lover Who Shot His Sweet-Heart and Failed on Himself.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Oct. 22.—Mary Dezenelli, aged 23 years, was shot and instantly killed Monday morning by Ramon Lopez. Lopez had been bothering the girl with his attentions for some time past, and had made threats of violence against her. He went to her father's residence and called her out to the gate, but she refused to have anything to do with him.

He drew a revolver and shot her through the body, killing her instantly. Lopez then shot at himself twice, without effect, and shortly afterward an officer came up and Lopez fired three shots at him without effect. Lopez was arrested and taken to Ventura for safe keeping, as threats of lynching were made.

Famous Counterfeiter Dead.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 22.—Pete McCartney, one of the most famous counterfeiters in the United States, died at the penitentiary here yesterday. When he died he was serving a ten years' sentence for passing counterfeit money in New Orleans in 1888. McCartney was an educated man, and had made a thorough study of the art of engraving and its application to criminal ends. His most successful work was on government bonds, and he once made a $1,000 United States bond so perfect that it was actually redeemed at the treasury, and the holder of the genuine was later arrested and charged with counterfeiting.

Perils of the Ocean.

ROCKLAND, Me., Oct. 22.—A letter from O. M. Clark, steward of the ill-fated ship St. Mary, of Bath, has reached L. D. Carver, of this city, a brother of Capt. Carver. The letter says that the ship was run into when off Cape Horn by an unknown vessel. They were running back to Port Stanley for repairs when the ship went ashore on the night of Aug. 10. When the ship struck, Capt. Carver seemed greatly discouraged and lived but a few hours. It is supposed that heart trouble was the cause of his death.

Christian Endeavor.

BUFFALO, Oct. 22.—The state convention of the societies of Christian Endeavor, convened in the Central Presbyterian church yesterday morning, about 1,300 delegates being in attendance. President Henry S. Stebbins, of Rochester, made the opening address on "Those Things Which Are Before." The state secretary, H. H. Bacon, of Syracuse, reported 20,000 members added to the society during the last year. The reports of the executive committee and local committee were presented and a reception followed.

Big Oil Suit Decided.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22.—An oil suit, involving $350,000, was decided yesterday at Morgantown, W. Va., in favor of the plaintiff, C. J. Garvey & Company, vs. E. M. Hukill. The defendant had forfeited a lease of 380 acres in the Mount Morris oil field, which the owner leased to Garvey & Company. The latter put down several wells, which proved good, and then Hukill brought suit to regain possession of the lease. The property is valued by the plaintiff at the amount named.

Admiral Porter's Condition.

PORTLAND, Ind., Oct. 22.—John T. Callahan, formerly of this city, but now of Jackson, O., was arrested at that place last Saturday and brought here and jailed. He was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Samuel Hanlan, of this city, who charges Callahan with forgery. Hanlan loses $5,000 by indorsing for him.

A Dude Comes to Grief.

NEWARK, O., Oct. 22.—Polite circles were shocked by the arrest of Charles Devereaux for jumping his board bill. He recently came from Chicago and cut quite a swath among genteel society, and by misrepresentations run up large bills. He admits his plain, everyday name is Charles Brown.

A Woman Terribly Burned.

LIMA, O., Oct. 22.—While George Deatridge was making medicine for rheumatism the ingredients took fire. His wife in trying to put the fire out got into the flames with her dress and was terribly burned.

Original Package Houses in Iowa.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Oct. 22.—Original package houses are beginning to open here in view of the recent Kansas decision. The city authorities are arresting the proprietors and fining them $50 a month, as was done before congress passed the bill. SIDNEY, O., Oct. 22.—James M. Barr, postmaster at Kirkwood, while bathing at Dick's Brothers' barber shop at Sidney, was taken with an epileptic fit and drowned in a tub.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

SHANNON.

Rev. W. H. Anderson, D. D., delivered a sermon on Epiphany at Shannon Church Sunday last. He had a good hearing, and made an able and exhaustive argument of the subject from his standpoint. His text was "One Lord, one Faith and one Baptism." He gratefully acknowledged the courtesy of all believers, and thinks the mode of no moment—it being merely the sign of the covenant between the church and the people. These utterances being from a distinguished doctor of divinity and one of the oldest of the Southern Methodist preachers, created quite a sensation. Introductory to the two-hour discourse, among other selections the choir rendered with much sweetness, "K. J. Lee, Rejoice, the Lost is Found," "I'm Telling You," and "The Lord is Found."

GERMAN OWN.

Isaac Woodward has been East for the past few days.

E. D. Miller, formerly of this place, is now living in Cincinnati.

Messrs. Claude Chazy and C. J. Cole, of Shannon, were here Sunday.

Miss Greene, of Ripley, is assisting Prof. Curry in our flourishing school.

Miss Alcega is teaching a select school at her father's residence near town.

The "two Bults"—Messrs. Butcher and Cooper—are taking in the St. Louis fair.

J. Dudley Smith, representing the N. Y. Life Insurance Company, is registered at the Rigdon House.

The members of the M. E. Church, colored, have erected a very neat parsonage in the lower end town.

Buckner Wall, son of Hon. G. A. Wall of Chicago, has been returned by conference for another year, which, we believe, gives general satisfaction to his church.

Mr. Joshua Owens, of near Fern Leaf, is raising a large new stable, with the celebrated Saggendorf Roofing—H. W. Dimmitt, agent.

Messrs. Hanson & Woodward's new store is being roofed by the same company also.

Rev. Humphrey, the new pastor of the M. E. Church, does not believe in hot dinners, base ball nor anything of the kind on Sunday. He is a very brilliant speaker, and handles his subject in a very able manner.

The President of the German own Democratic Club requests us to say that the club will be called together for re-organization at the city hall, Saturday night next, at 7:30 o'clock, sharp. Let all true Democrats turn out.

MAY-LICK.

Last Saturday night a fearful wind storm.

A chestnut wagon was in town last week and stocked the town with two bushels of nuts.

Elder W. M. Tindler had a unanimous call from the Christian Church last Sunday for another year.

The gate receipts at the colored fair the last day was over $100, and not $10 as appeared in our last item.

The lecture of Mr. Robert Caldwell last Wednesday evening was ably attended. The people seemed to think more of the 35 cents than of the departed dead.

Elder F. M. Tindler's discourse last Sunday on the Lord's Supper was a grand success and the crowning effort of his life, and will probably be published, as it has been requested of him.

Woolen fabrics of all kinds are moving off slowly, while boots and shoes remain in the background, owing to the lovely fall weather, but we will take it for granted that it is all right.

There were three additions to the Christian Church last Sunday night by confession—Mrs. W. E. Fogue, Mrs. Lee Fox and a Mr. Brandon. Mrs. Fogue was baptized the same hour of the night.

The Colored Christian Church in this place is having quite a revival. Services conducted by Rev. Mr. Merchant. Several additions, and the meeting still going on with deep and unabating interest.

H. K. Dobyns, of Kansas City, an old Mason County boy of 10 years gone by, is here reviewing the old landmarks and visiting his old friends. But few of his old associates are left. The writer is one, and always glad to greet him.

Elder W. C. Tharp, of Versailles, a very prominent divine, will commence a series of meetings at the Christian Church in this place Monday evening, November 10th. Let everybody try and be ready, but don't have too many big dinners and everybody try to beat everybody else.

We would suggest that some one competent would deliver a lecture in this place and have the proceeds go to erect a fitting monument to the memory of a great and good man, Walter Scott, and one of the first movers in the reformation, who now lies in our cemetery for years past, and without a mark to point to his resting place. 'Tis a shame. Who will start the ball to rolling?

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
